

Children and Youth Services Director

Duties

1. Teach and coordinate volunteer teachers for our Sunday school program each Sunday. Train teacher volunteers as necessary.
2. Organize and/or coordinate activities and events which engage, instruct, energize and inspire our youth to become active participants in the life of the Church and the Christian Community at large.
3. Assure that the activities and events planned for our youth provide a non-threatening environment where questions and doubts may be voiced without judgment.
4. Assist with some of the existing programs in which our youth currently participate.
5. Explore additional opportunities for youth engagement in the Church.
6. Design, offer and chaperone some Youth fun events that will encourage youth to participate and to bring their friends.
7. Report activities to the Education Team monthly and coordinate with the Administrative Assistant so that activities are well advertised, fit the Church schedule of activities in a productive way and visible to the congregation and other interested youth.

Requirements

The individual contracted as Children and Youth Services Director must be a self-starter with the ability to organize and direct group activities. The person should have a strong faith grounded in the beliefs of the Church of the Brethren. Most importantly, the person must have a passion for working with youth and truly enjoys being in the company of youth.

The success of the position will not be measured in time spent on the job but rather the success of the various programs and responsibilities the individual achieves. Other than the required 2 hours each Sunday morning for Sunday school teaching and volunteer coordination of Children and Youth teachers, the position will allow flexibility for the individual in planning and executing the duties of the position. The Director of Children and Youth Services will determine the number and types of activities in which to engage each month.

This position will not be an hourly position, but rather a contracted service position. The contract will be for $700-$1,000 per month, to be paid bi-weekly and will, initially be for a period of no greater than 8 months. The supplemental contract is not self-renewing and will be re-considered each year based upon success, needs and financial feasibility.

Resumes will be accepted until April 30, 2019. Please submit resumes by mail to:
Black Rock Church of the Brethren, 3864 Glenville Rd, Glenville, PA 17329
